

I Will Not Complain launched a series of workshops designed to address people and business development issues identified from our work with clients in China. Our idea was to begin sharing insights and experience gained from our 15 years of operating in China.

Whether these workshops – or “Open Programs” – were delivered in Chinese or English, the aim was to give HR and other professionals invited to attend a sense of the range and depth of solutions IWNC had been asked to provide by clients.

The programs have been delivered with the same energy and professionalism IWNC is famous for and the feedback from participants has been positive indeed.
